Digital Piano Adjudicator Jennifer van Gennip

Jennifer van Gennip holds a Bachelor of Music degree with Honors in Piano Performance from the University of Western Ontario. During her studies, Jennifer represented her home province of New Brunswick at 2 national competitions and won numerous scholarships for both performance and academics. After graduating, Jennifer joined the Piano Faculty at the Merriam Music Centre in Oakville, teaching private and group piano classes, preschool music classes, and helping with curriculum development as the Assistant Head of the Piano Department. Since then, Jennifer has taught group and private piano lessons in Halifax and now in Barrie, using a variety of technologies to facilitate learning and ensemble playing. She has also become very interested in the many benefits of music groups for children with special learning needs. She has focused her studies on what today's top music educators are teaching and tailoring it for the special needs student, particularly those living on the autism spectrum. She has presented on this topic in both Canada and the US. Jennifer now lives in Barrie with her husband and their three children and is active as a teacher, workshop clinician, and adjudicator.
