

41st Anniversary - 2022

Kiwanis Music Festival of Guelph

Welcome to the 41st annual Kiwanis Music Festival of Guelph.

Many thanks to our participants, adjudicators, visitors, donors and sponsors, organizers, volunteers, Board and Committee members, media guests, and venues. We look forward to another wonderful Festival and hope you enjoy this valuable contribution to the cultural life of Guelph and Wellington County.

Please remember that the performers need absolute silence and you must wait to enter or leave the hall until there is a break in the performance. Please turn off all cell phones and other electronic devices. Photos and videos of performances may be taken if the performer has given their permission, but no flash photography and absolutely no recording of the adjudication is permitted. Please remain in your seat and be discreet while recording.

Please join us for the Highlights of the Festival Concert & Awards Ceremony on Saturday, May 14 at St. George's Church at 7 pm.

It will feature some of the finest performances heard during the Festival, as well as the presentation of medals and scholarships.

Tickets will be sold through River Run Centre Box Office at 519-763-3000.

$15/Adults, $10/Students & Seniors, and $5/Children 12 & Under

Bands Adjudicator

Greg Colley

Greg has been the Head of Music at Pierre Elliott Trudeau High School, in Markham, since 2004. During this time, the program has seen great growth. Greg is the conductor of the Grade 11 Wind Symphony, Grade 12 Wind Symphony, and a staff advisor for the Music Council. In February of 2019, he made his conducting debut at Carnegie Hall, with the Grade 12 Wind Symphony. Greg is also currently a sessional lecturer at the University of Toronto, Faculty of Music, in instrumental rehearsing and conducting techniques. Previously, he has been a sessional lecturer at the University of Toronto, Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, in instrumental music. At the 2013 Musicfest Canada "The Nationals", Greg was awarded the Keith Mann Award, as outstanding band director at the festival.

Greg is a graduate of the University of Toronto, both at the Faculty of Music where he studied music education and trumpet, and at OISE. He has led presentations at the OMEA conference on ensemble tone and teaching intonation, and his articles have been published by the Ontario Band Association. He is active as a clinician, conductor, and adjudicator throughout Ontario.

In the Salvation Army, Greg is the bandmaster of the Yorkminster Citadel Band, which currently has grown to just over 30 members, ranging in age from 13 to 85. Greg is happily married to his wife Elizabeth and together they have 3 wonderful children: Brendan, Ryan, and Caitlin.
