Adjudicator Irene Tandberg

Violinist, Irene Tandberg's career as performer and pedagogue spans four decades. She has established vibrant private and university studios where her students have been honoured with many prestigious scholarships and awards, obtained positions at notable international & domestic schools & orchestras, and pursued distinguished solo careers. Irene's long tenure as Co-Director of Forest City School for Talent Education, FCTE, inspired her to further enrich students' experience by creating the Young Artists Pre-College Academy. YAPCA's diverse programming cultivates motivated high school & university students who are inspired to explore a high level of technical finesse and artistry through chamber music in a collegial, non-competitive environment.

Irene was born in Denmark. Her first teacher was her grandfather, Wolf Notkin. In later years, her principal teachers were Gwen Thompson and Dana Mazurkevich at the University of Western Ontario. Irene then went on to follow her passion for performance and teaching with acclaimed pedagogues, while concurrently pursuing Suzuki teacher training. Past recordings and performances reflect an eclectic range of engagements on Modern and Baroque violin. She has had the privilege to perform in core, principal and solo positions with many fine orchestras and chamber groups including L'Harmonie Universelle, Nota Bene and Arcady. In 1989 she founded the string quartet, Octo Mani. Irene is a vastly experienced and fervent pedagogue who has both written and given invited talks on performance, teaching and practice strategies. She is in high demand as a festival adjudicator, master class teacher and workshop clinician in music programs and teaching institutions across Canada. In addition to running her private studio, acting as the Coordinator for Western 360 and Directing YAPCA, she is a very active faculty member in the Performance Department at Western and recipient of the student council "Award of Excellence" in teaching.
