

Junior Strings Adjudicator – Margot Jewell

Margot Jewell has been immersed in the Suzuki world for the last 50 years, training with many inspiring pedagogues, including Shinichi Suzuki in Matsumoto, Japan in 1985. She began her Suzuki teaching in Hamilton and then at Etobicoke Suzuki Music (Toronto) which she co-founded in 1982. Margot became a teacher trainer for the Suzuki Association of the Americas and has enjoyed working with adults in that capacity. She was honoured to serve on the boards of the Suzuki Association of Ontario and the Suzuki Association of the Americas. Margot is an active festival adjudicator as well as an examiner for the Royal Conservatory of Music. Margot is the proud mother of a Suzuki violinist and cellist, and loves teaching her grandchildren. She recently retired from teaching students at ESM and now lives with husband Ron in Huntsville Ontario, near their family.
