

Jr. Strings Adjudicator

Esme Allen-Creighton

Violist and violinist Esme Allen-Creighton, BM, MM, DMA, is a Juilliard-trained Suzuki Certified Violin Pedagogue who has worked with students of all ages across North America. Faculty positions have included: Juilliard School's Music Advancement Program, Brooklyn College, State University of New York (SUNY) Potsdam, the University of Delaware, the Philadelphia Orchestra Teaching Artist Program, and most recently the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto.

Esme lives in Hamilton, ON and performs throughout the GTA. Recently she's appeared with the Odin Quartet, The Esprit Orchestra, Toronto Concert Orchestra and Orquesta Solidaridad, an all female tango ensemble. Previously she performed frequently with Grammy-nominated Inscape Chamber Orchestra, toured Europe as principal of the Arcos Orchestra, and debuted works at Carnegie Hall as violist of the Serafin Quartet.