

Choirs Adjudicator – Caitlyn Breukelman

Caitlyn Breukelman is a soprano, conductor, and music educator based in Ontario. She holds a Master of Music in Choral Conducting from the University of Alberta and a Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance from McMaster University, and is currently pursuing a Masters in Clinical Counselling at Tyndale University.

Caitlyn has extensive experience working with children's and youth choirs across Canada. She has served in conducting roles with the Hamilton Children's Choir, Edmonton Youth and Children's Choirs, and the Cantilon Choirs, where she has led ensembles at a variety of levels. Her work emphasizes strong pedagogical foundations, incorporating approaches such as Kodály-based instruction and Bel Canto vocal technique, while fostering inclusive and supportive rehearsal environments.

In addition to her choral work, Caitlyn has experiences as an elementary music teacher in Hamilton, where she directed choirs and concert band ensembles, and taught music literacy, theory, and performance to students in Grades 6 through 8. She also maintains a private voice studio, working with students of diverse backgrounds and abilities.

Caitlyn is passionate about creating meaningful musical experiences that prioritize both artistic excellence and student well-being. Her approach to music education is rooted in encouragement, thoughtful feedback, and a desire to support the growth and confidence of each performer.
